

ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT

The ISO 14000 family of standards provides practical tools for companies and organizations of all kinds looking to manage their environmental responsibilities.

Course Aims

This two-day course takes an in-depth look at Environmental Management, the applicable legislation and how to implement and audit effective Environmental Management Systems. You will cover the stages of implementing an EMS and review the requirements of ISO/IEC 14001:2015 standard. In addition, there will be syndicate work on developing an implementation plan, environmental policy and an EMS audit plan

Course Objectives

- Understand the fundamentals of Environmental Management
- Understand and describe the requirements of ISO 14001:2015 for EMS
- Describe the purpose of environmental management systems, PDCA cycle and the 7 management principles
- Summarize the contribution that audits make to an efficient and effective management system
- Explain the principles and methods of performing process based audits against ISO 14001:2015
- Define the roles and responsibilities of an auditor
- Complete an audit using a structured approach
- Review an audit showing corrective action and root cause analysis