

FIRE PREVENTION MANAGEMENT

The primary purpose of a fire management system is to design, manage, plan and coordinate appropriate fire safety procedures to reduce the risks of fire and to ensure the safety of building occupants. A complete fire management system ensures legal compliance and protection of lives and assets

Course Aims

This two-day course introduces the structure of a fire management system following the Annex XL concept of ISO for a comprehensive approach to manage risks and have effective means of managing emergency situation caused by fire

Course Objectives

- Understand the structure of Fire Management System that includes
 - Fire safety management strategy
 - Risk analysis procedures and risk analysis
 - Standard operating procedures
 - Emergency procedures
 - Fire and smoke control procedures
 - Fire fighting procedures
 - Fire protection procedures